Narragansett Bay Insurance Company Announces Completion of $200 Million Funding Agreement

PAWTUCKET, RHODE ISLAND – JANUARY 9, 2008

Narragansett Bay Insurance Company and affiliates (“NBIC”) announced today the completion of a funding agreement totaling $200 million from three private equity investors: Pine Brook Capital Partners LP, Soros Strategic Partners LP, and RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. The equity will be used to grow the company’s homeowners business along the Eastern seaboard, insuring both coastal and inland properties and offering new options to homeowners in these large but challenged markets.

The transaction is subject to the approval of the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation.

Headquartered in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, NBIC offers specialty insurance products and services to homeowners through a network of independent insurance agents in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and New York. The company emerged from the 158-year-old Pawtucket Mutual Insurance Co., which was originally acquired by NBIC’s parent company, Blackstone Financial Group, Inc., in December 2005. NBIC is led by a new management team that includes Stewart H. ‘Nick’ Steffey, Jr., chairman and chief executive officer, Geoffrey E. Hunt, executive vice president, Albert J. Pereira, president and chief underwriting officer, Patrick S. Wilmerding, vice president - strategic planning, and Sean F. Murphy, senior vice president and chief financial officer.

Mr. Steffey has over 35 years of insurance experience. He served as founding president and chief executive officer of Liberty International Holdings Inc., a $4.5 billion business which is a subsidiary of the Liberty Mutual Group. Mr. Hunt has over 20 years of financial and insurance experience, including managing Liberty Mutual Group subsidiaries, which controlled a $2.5 billion business, selling personal and small commercial property and casualty insurance products through independent insurance agents. Mr. Pereira has over 25 years of insurance company management experience and was formerly president of Summit Insurance Company, a leading underwriter for insurance agents in Rhode Island.

“When we took over the business we found a strong operational core that we could build on. We have refocused the company, providing a solution for homeowners who have experienced disruption in the marketplace and who are looking for superior products and service,” said Nick

Steffey. “This investment will enable us to enter new markets and provide coverage for even more homeowners.”
