Jeremy R. Bennett Hired As Narragansett Bay Insurance Co.'s Technical Support Specialist

Pawtucket, R.I. – Narragansett Bay Insurance Company announced that its new technical support specialist is Jeremy R. Bennett. He has more than 15 years of experience, providing companies with application and network support to Web and database integration.

Early in his career, Bennett worked for colleges and then moved into the insurance industry, serving as an information technology support and development specialist. He then worked for a small Web business-to-business intranet company before joining Johnson & Johnson, where he was a senior information technology analyst for its orthopedics division for the last six years.

Bennett is a music enthusiast and resides in Attleboro, Mass., with his wife, Nancy.

The Narragansett Bay Insurance Co. is headquartered in Pawtucket and offers specialty insurance services and products to preferred homeowners through a select network of independent agents. Narragansett Bay Insurance has been meeting its obligations to its agent partners and customers since 1848.
