Narragansett Bay Announces New Director of Risk Management

PAWTUCKET, RHODE ISLAND – July 29, 2010

Narragansett Bay Insurance Company announced that Nicole Holden Perrault has joined the company's expanding risk management team as Director of Risk Management. With a background in many facets of risk and actuarial analysis, Mrs. Perrault will work to measure and mitigate catastrophic loss and provide reinsurance support.

Working under the management of Mark Talerico, Chief Risk and Underwriting Officer, Mrs. Perrault will work to develop cat management strategies, including underwriting guidelines and strategic pricing. She will also provide due diligence on company transactions and reinsurance decisions.

Prior to joining Narragansett Bay, Mrs. Perrault served as Risk Management Supervisor for OneBeacon Insurance. In that capacity, she was responsible for analyzing and providing catastrophic exposure metrics to the board of directors, rating agencies and field offices. Nicole was also charged with supporting reinsurance planning and placements. She additionally has extensive experience in analyzing data, interpreting catastrophe simulation model output and composing quarterly reports and support for reinsurance placement needs.

"Nicole brings a fresh perspective to our existing risk management team. Her background in risk modeling, reinsurance and cat management will prove beneficial as we continue to work to initiate effective risk management solutions," said Mark Talerico, Chief Risk and Underwriting Officer.
